Stars Be Natural and You Will Never Be Off Guard

By ANN BLESENER.

WE all admire naturalness. Arti-ricality at its best in a poor sub-stime for the real thing. In thinking of artificiality we usually think of paper flowers, plaster diamonds and superfluous complexlone. Did you ever think what a lot of artificiality there is about people that you don't grasp until you start talking with them? When we meet anyone we instinctively base our epinion on what we see Gandineness in appearance has a lot to de with our impression. Haven't you caught yourself running your fingers lightly over the name on the eard you have just been presented? That's an example of hunting for the

Our individuality lies in the fact that we are different from the other person, and the person who tries to imitate another, in speech or action, or what not, is throwing away his only interesting characteristic, his tadividuality.

Fresh Fruit Desserts-2c

Jiffy-Jell desserts, rich and fruity, cost but 2 cents per serving.

Each package contains a vial of fruit essence, made from condensed fruit juice.

Add boiling water, then this flavor, and you have a fresh-fruit dainty. Compare Jiffy-Jell with the old-atyle quick gela-tine desserts. You will find it five times better, yet it costs no more. Millions now enjoy it.
